

The Hancocks wake up to this view every day.

LAUREL VANCOCK
I've known Laurel Vancock since we first met in 2011. She and her husband, Randy, live in a beautiful home in the mountains of Colorado. They have a large property with a view of the Rocky Mountains. Laurel is a professional and a mother. She and Randy have three children. They are a family that values their time together and their home. Laurel is a woman who is always ready to help others. She is a woman who is always ready to listen. She is a woman who is always ready to learn. She is a woman who is always ready to grow. She is a woman who is always ready to change. She is a woman who is always ready to be better. She is a woman who is always ready to be the best. She is a woman who is always ready to be the best young.

Laurel and Randy have a lot of common interests and hobbies. They love to hike, fish, and hunt. They also love to travel and explore new places.
